

Echoes of Unity

(Verse 1)

In a world of chaos, where darkness looms,
The Andy Coolman Band brings hope and tunes.
From every corner, they gather to play,
Uniting hearts, lighting up the way.

(Chorus)

Heal the world with love and song,
Let our voices rise, together strong.
In harmony, we'll stand as one,
With music as our guiding sun.

(Verse 2)

From mountains high to oceans wide,
Their melodies echo, reaching far and wide.
With each note played, a message sent,
Of peace and joy, of pure intent.

(Chorus)

Heal the world with love and song,
Let our voices rise, together strong.
In harmony, we'll stand as one,
With music as our guiding sun.

(Bridge)

Through rhythm and rhyme, they weave a tale,
Of dreams pursued and love prevail.
With strings and keys, they paint the sky,
A symphony of hope, flying high.

(Chorus)

Heal the world with love and song,
Let our voices rise, together strong.
In harmony, we'll stand as one,
With music as our guiding sun.

(Outro)

So let the anthem ring, across the land,
The Andy Coolman Band, hand in hand.
For in their music, we find our worth,
In unity, we'll heal the Earth.
