

Harmony's Anthem: A Vision of Heaven on Earth

(Verse 1)

Imagine there's a world where love reigns supreme,
Where kindness flows like rivers in a dream.
No borders to divide, no walls to separate,
Just unity and peace, it's never too late.

(Chorus)

Heaven on Earth, where we all belong,
Sung by The Andy Coolman Band, a universal song.
Together we rise, in harmony we stand,
In this vision of hope, let's join hand in hand.

(Verse 2)

Imagine all the people living without fear,
Embracing diversity, drawing near.
No hatred, no violence, just compassion's glow,
In this radiant tapestry, let love overflow.

(Chorus)

Heaven on Earth, where we all belong,
Sung by The Andy Coolman Band, a universal song.
Together we rise, in harmony we stand,
In this vision of hope, let's join hand in hand.

(Bridge)

Let's paint a world where dreams take flight,
Where every soul shines with pure light.
With every note we play, and every word we sing,
Let's build a paradise where joy will forever ring.

(Chorus)

Heaven on Earth, where we all belong,
Sung by The Andy Coolman band, a universal song.
Together we rise, in harmony we stand,
In this vision of hope, let's join hand in hand.

(Outro)

So let's dream together, let's make it real,
With every beat of our hearts, let's seal the deal.
For in this anthem of love, we find our worth,
In the symphony of life, let's create Heaven on Earth.
